

Tales

An excerpt from

Neil Armstrong's Moon Diary

July 15, 1969: Tomorrow I am boarding a rocket and will be equipped with nothing but a spacesuit and 1 . I'm going to fly to the moon! My crewmates are Buzz Aldrin and Michael Collins. They're both experts in aeronautics, while I'm an expert in 2 , which I believe will give us the perfect combination of skills to make this a successful mission. I can't wait to go to space with them. I wonder if there will be 3 up there.

However much weed $20 can buy.

1 Something that fits in a suitcase.

Your mom.

2 Something dumb
to be an expert in.

Trees.

3 Something you wouldn't expect to see in outer space.

An excerpt from

Maria is Possessed

"Yes, there is no question that this is a demon," said Father Javier. "And a dangerous one at that—the living embodiment of 6 . He probably saw your child 7 , and sensed that there was innocence to be corrupted, purity to be feasted on, like 8 .

Fox News.

6 Something evil.

Pooping in a leotard and hoping no one notices.

7 Something innocent
that a child might do.

The sweet, forbidden meat
of the monkey.

8 Something edible.

